INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Frank Lerle Bone

For share of money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Act of Congress approved June 30, 1905, in accordance with the decrees of the Court of Claims of May 18, 1905, and May 28, 1906.

June 19, 1907.

Frank L. Boone,
Atmore, Alabama.

Sir:

This Office is in receipt of what purports to be a supplemental application in your behalf for your minor children to participate in the fund arising from a judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of Eastern Cherokees. This supplemental application appears to have been prepared by one John D. Beck.

It does not appear, however, that you have ever filed an original application to participate in this fund in your own right. If you desire to have your claim considered, you should fill out the enclosed application blank and execute the same and return to this Office without delay.

In order, however, that you may fully understand the situation, I wish to call your attention to the fact that the Creek Indians, as such, have no right whatever to participate in this fund. Unless you can show that you are descended from some Eastern Cherokee Indian who was a member of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe at the date of the Treaty of 1835-6 or 1846, you would not be entitled to share in this fund and it would, therefore, be useless for you to file an application. You will find enclosed a circular letter giving further information.

Frank L. Boone-- 2.

You are further informed that John D. Beck has no authority to represent this Office and is in no way officially connected with the Eastern Cherokee enrollment.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

My name is Mary J. Burch. I live at Laurel, Ark. I was born in Bradley Co., Tenn. I was born in 1834 or 1833. I lived in Eastern Tenn. 27 years and then moved to Ark. I moved out to Ark. just because my husband wanted to come. I was born with the Cherokee tribe of Indians and was living right with them in Tenn. I don't know whether I was a recognized member of the tribe or not. I claim through my mother, Polly Ann Carson. She was born in Eastern Tenn. She was about 27 years old I reckon when I was born. I reckon she was a recognized member of the tribe. They were living with the Indians the first I can remember. She lived and died in Tenn. She did not move out west with the Indians because her grandfather was an American man and they could not make him come out west with the Indians. My grandmother's name was Martha Glass. I never made an application for citizenship in the Dawes Commission. If any of my relatives did, I did not know it. None of my ancestors received any money or land from the Govt. on account of an Indian blood as I know of.

COURT OF CLAIMS

Russellville, Ky.
Sept. 5, 1908.

Mr. Guion Miller, Esq.,
Special Commissioner,
Court of Claims,
601 Ouray Bldg.,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:-

In re- Claim or Application #43792
Cherokees, east of Miss. River.

Replying to your letter of the 14th of August, 1908, I desire to say that the four children for whom application was made are all living with me, as they are minors. These four children, claim their Cherokee blood through me and not through their father.

I was born in Wilson County, in the State of Tennessee, and it was on the 9 day of January, 1856, that I was born.

I claim my Cherokee blood through my mother.

My mother was named Sarah Goin, and she married O.B. Brown, - she was born and raised in Hamilton County, Tennessee, some time about the year 1840 (not sure of the date).

My grand-father through whom the Cherokee blood comes was named James Goin; he was living in Hamilton County, Tennessee, but do not not when he was born, as I have no record of it.

He was recognized as a Cherokee Indian.

It is my understanding that my grand-father, James Goin, was born and raised and died in Hamilton County, Tennessee, and of course was living there in 1834.

I don't know whether any of my ancestors were ever on any Indian roll or not.

I have never heard of any of my ancestors through whom I claim, being a slave.

I have filed application in this fund as Guardian for my infant children, and the number of the application is as stated above, #43792.

If there is any other information desired, please let me know what it is and I will do my best to answer all inquiries.

Yours very respectfully,

FOR MINOR CHILDREN

For share of money appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Act of Congress approved June 30, 1906, in accordance with the decrees of the Court of Claims of May 18, 1905, and May 28, 1906.

June 19, 1907.

Mrs. R. G. Harrison,
Jeddo, Alabama.

Madam:

This Office is in receipt of what purports to be a supplemental application in your behalf for your minor children to participate in the fund arising from a judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of Eastern Cherokees. This supplemental application appears to have been prepared by one John D. Beck.

It does not appear, however, that you have ever filed an original application to participate in this fund in your own right. If you desire to have your claim considered, you should fill out the enclosed application blank and execute the same and return to this Office without delay.

In order, however, that you may fully understand the situation, I wish to call your attention to the fact that the Creek Indians, as such, have no right whatever to participate in this fund. Unless you can show that you are descended from some Eastern Cherokee Indian who was a member of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe at the date of the Treaty of 1845-6 or 1846, you would not be entitled to share in this fund and it would, therefore, be useless for you to file an application. You will find enclosed a circular letter giving further information.

Mrs. R. G. Harrison-- 2.

You are further informed that John D. Beck has no authority to represent this Office and is in no way officially connected with the Eastern Cherokee enrollment.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Sir:

Your response to our letter of July 23, 1907, is received and noted.

It does not appear, from the records of this Office, that you, as natural guardian of your children, or that Carrie Miller before her death, ever filed an application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Funds. You refer, in your communication, to the application heretofore filed, but you do not state the number of same, or whose application you refer to. However, any claim made for these children must be made by you, as their natural guardian, or by the mother before her decease, or by their legal guardian, or by the person having them in charge, and must be made on the original form prescribed.

This matter must have prompt attention, as the rolls will close on August 31, 1907, and you must file the application as directed, without delay, in case you have no number of original application filed.

I don't know who he got his blood from. ~~xxxxxx~~ I cannot name any of his brothers and sisters.

My name is John G. Milner. My age is 29 years. I live in Coo-wee-scoo-wee District. I have always lived here. I was enrolled by the Dawes Commission, Roll #12012. I am about 1/16. I was enrolled before and got bread and strip and grass money. I claim my Indian blood through my mother, Mary Maxfield, before marriage. She is living. She has lived here about 33 years. She lived in Paul's Valley, Chickasaw nation. She has no Chickasaw blood. She is about 52 years old. My father was a white man. She got her blood from her mother. I do not remember her maiden name. My mother filed an application, #6790. My mother never associated with any other tribe than the Cherokees except while she lived in the Chickasaw nation. She was enrolled by Dawes Commission and got the different payments previously. I do not know whether any of my people were parties to the treaties of 1835-6. I do not know the ancestor who came from the East. I do not know in what year they came West. (Rachel Maxfield, nee Barnes was my mother's mother. Furnished by Mr. Starr. She lived in Skin Bayou District.) My mother had no brothers and sisters. (John Albert Barnes, Alexander F. Barnes, Corinne A., Theresa E., Henry C., Sarah, Minnie and Fannie Barnes, were his grandmothers sisters and brothers. According to Mr. Starr's records.) Minnie and Fannie were younger and may not have been enrolled in 1851. I don't think they ever received any money as Old Settlers. (The name of his great-grandparents were: Thomas and Mary Barnes. As per Mr. Starr.) I think they were on the 1851 Roll.
